Hidden Treasures of Bhutan Oct.10-20, 2015 with KUTIRA

Dear Friends,

Last night I returned from a great tour in Europe with Raphael. Traveling to different cultures has always been a great remedy to enhance my life and grow exponentially. Thoroughly a window into the world.

I would like to invite you to my next journey to Bhutan and I promise you this adventure will be etched forever in your being.

If you can travel, call me now, as this is the last opportunity to get the air tickets into Bhutan and this is the best season to go. My groups are always small and personal.

This is truly the last jewel of the Himalayas and if spirit is calling you, then you will be immersed in the beauty of Bhutan this coming fall. Explore the current capital Thimphu, ancient capital Punakha, and finally the historic city of Paro. All travels to these cities will be accompanied with in-depth exploration of all of what Bhutan has to offer.

If this hidden jewel has been in your dreams, or on your "wish list" you may explore the question: "If not now, then when"?

I am honored to share with you that precious jewel that is very close to my heart. I can show you more than just the tourist attractions. If you ever dreamt to go to Bhutan.... don't wait too long, time is running out. The only constant is change and yes, change is happening rapidly in this country too. Please contact me as soon as possible to secure the airline ticket.

Thank you for taking the time to listen and to explore this opportunity.

With love,
